

SUMMER SPECIAL where to stay, eat, and shop right now

TRAVEL + THE GUIDE

JULY 2005

reports

SUMMER SPECIAL

The water is warm, the gelato is cold—and Labor Day is months away. On the following nine pages you'll find our picks of this summer's must-sees, must-haves, and must-dos, from scintillating nightlife capitals (who needs Ibiza when you have Moscow?) to luxurious tented retreats (life is just better under a canopy, we say). And you needn't travel far to find this season's thrills. Whether you're looking to tackle the trails of Yosemite, discover the vineyards of Long Island, retreat to a country inn, or just hit a city rooftop and bask in the sun, T+L has you covered. Speaking of which, we've also found the perfect lip balm with SPF (see page 40). There's still plenty of time left, so break out the summer whites, the beach bag, the picnic basket, the kumquat mojitos. Break out, period.

PLUS
best of chicago
buenos a heats up
go fish!
quebec's
lodges
chinatown
around the world

In the Swim
The Olympic-sized pool at the recently renovated Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel, 7000 Hollywood Blvd., Los Angeles; 800/950-7667 or 323/466-7000; www.thompsonhotels.com; doubles from $249.

Catherine Ledner

35

U.S. $4.50 CANADA $5.50
DISPLAY UNTIL JULY 26

www.travelandleisure.com
aol keyword: travelandleisure