

Guess Who's Back - An Eye on L.A. Exclusive

Everyone knows Dodd Mitchell as the current house designer in L.A. for hotels, restaurants and nightclubs (we'd list some projects, but there's just so many). Last seen at the Grand Sierra Resort in Reno where escrow closed last month and the new Sushi Roku restaurant begins construction in the next two weeks, the super sly designing guru has kept a low profile. Sources tell us his firm has recently been hired by Pacific Monarch Resorts, Inc. to design and develop their $150 million project in Cabo San Lucas, Cabo Azul Resort. The project will include yet another Sushi Roku, a partnership with comedian Pauly Shore for a nightclub, and a fashion boutique for Mitchell and partner Scott Schneider's comfortable-sexy clothing line, Sleep. Also within the property will be six high-end condos on the sand. For Mitchell's transportation in Cabo, design buddy and MTV's car genius, Todd Ashley, is in the process of building him a '67 Shelby with four-wheel drive. Of course, the Eye also can tell you that the designer, no longer living in hotels, just purchased a place, or should we say estate, in the resort city to call 'home.'
