Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel Los Angeles

Club house Dodd Mitchell, designer of L.A. nightspots Dolce and Sushi Roku, worked on a more intimate scale in the Roosevelt's cabana suites: "I use lighting, fire elements and natural materials to create warm, comfortable rooms." A mod fireplace and artfully displayed wood add drama.

Rich layers Dark walnut floors, brick walls and heavy cotton draperies all conspire to create a romantic haven. Whimsical glass lights are sculptural and functional.

In contrast The low-slung platform bed with a high-gloss lacquered wood base contrasts smartly with white linens and a soft leather throw. 7000 Hollywood Blvd., 323-466-7000, hollywoodroosevelt.com.

Retro Glam

Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt recently stayed in the updated Clark Gable/Carole Lombard penthouse at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel—need we say more? Home to the first Oscars, it is once again where industry hipsters want to party. Check out the newly reopened Teddy's bar. Fun Oscar fact: Nicole Kidman once dressed here before hitting the Kodak Theatre's red carpet across the street (323-466-7000).
